

Announcement of the Faculty of Economics

Chiang Mai University

Subject: Recruitment for University Employee Selection

Position: Lecturer

The Faculty of Economics intends to recruit individuals for selection and appointment as a University Employee in the position of Lecturer, Position No. EV270004, EV270005, with 2 vacancy Salary 41,000 Baht. The appointee will be affiliated with the Faculty of Economics, with the salary funded by the government budget. The details are as follows:

1. General Qualifications of Applicants

1. The applicant must possess general qualifications and must not have any prohibited characteristics as specified in Chiang Mai University Personnel Administration Regulations, B.E. 2567 (2024), Clause 11.

1.2 Must not be a person who has resigned from Thai government service under an early retirement program or any other similar program.

1.3 The applicant must possess integrity, ethical conduct, a spirit of volunteerism and service, good interpersonal skills, and perseverance.

1.4 The applicant must be able to work beyond regular office hours and carry out other duties as assigned.

1.5 The applicant must have a pleasant personality, possess strong communication and coordination skills, demonstrate responsibility and enthusiasm, and be able to work effectively as part of a team.

1.6 The applicant must possess the ability to resolve unforeseen issues and collaborate effectively with individuals from culturally diverse backgrounds.

1.7 In cases where the law requires military conscription, the applicant must have completed the conscription process or be exempted from it.

2. Specific qualification

2.1 Must hold a doctoral degree in Economics, Applied Economics, or a field related to Economics from a Thai or internationally recognized institution by the Office of the Civil Service Commission (OCSC).

2.2 Experience in teaching and/or working in Macroeconomics, Community Economics, Green Economy and Sustainable Development, Digital Economy, or

Data Sciences will receive special consideration.

2.3 Academic work, research, or publications in Community Economics, Green Economy and Sustainable Development, Digital Economy, Data Sciences, Health Economics, or Tourism Economics that have been published in the SCOPUS and/or ISI databases will be considered an advantage.

2.4 Applicants must have a minimum English proficiency score from one of the following tests:

- TOEFL (ITP): Minimum score of 550
- TOEFL (iBT): Minimum score of 80
- TOEFL (CBT): Minimum score of 196
- IELTS: Minimum score of 6.0
- CMU-eTEGS: Minimum score of 80

Applicants with a doctoral degree from universities in English-speaking countries (USA, Canada, UK, Australia, New Zealand) or those who are nationals of these countries and use English as their primary language are not required to submit an English proficiency test score.

3. Welfare benefit

As specified by the university and provided by the Faculty of Economics, such as: enhanced health benefits (e.g., additional welfare and annual checks), essential disaster assistance for personnel, and travel insurance for official assignments, academic incentives (remuneration for authored books/textbooks and published academic works), dedicated research grants, financial support for presentations at international conferences abroad, budget for self-development activities (training, seminars, study trips, books/e-books) and provision of computer and tablet equipment for teaching and research management.

4. Term of employment

Set a probationary period of 1 Year : The probationary period must last no less than the duration specified by the department or the university. For the consideration of employment contract renewal : if the probation is not successfully completed, the employee will be terminated. With an employment period not exceeding 5 Years, starting from the commencement date of the probationary appointment.

5. Workplace

Faculty of Economics or as specified by the university. or as specified by the university.

6. Application criteria

Interested individuals must complete the application form through the CMU HR e-Recruitment system at https://cmuhr.oou.cmu.ac.th/recruitment from now Until December 11, 2026, at 16:30

7. Applicants must sign to certify true copies of all required documents before uploading them to the CMU HR e-Recruitment system as follows:

7.1 A copy of the national ID card, or in the case of a foreign national, a copy of the passport.

7.2 A certified copy of the educational qualification certificate.

7.3 A certified copy of the complete academic transcript.

7.4 A front-facing photograph (without a hat or dark sunglasses) taken no more than 6 months prior to the application deadline.

7.5 A copy of the certificate of name and/or surname change (if applicable).

7.6 A certificate of completion of military service or official exemption from conscription (if applicable).

7.7 Documents certifying foreign language proficiency

7.8 A resume, work experience, and academic publications

8. Announcement of Eligible Candidates

The Faculty of Economics will announce the list of eligible candidates for the selection process on December 15, 2026 via https://cmuhr.oou.cmu.ac.th/recruitment and https://www.econ.cmu.ac.th

9. Selection criteria

9.1 Research Presentation (25 points)

Present an overview of previous research and academic service activities. In addition, select one research project in which you served as the principal researcher to present in detail.

9.2 Teaching Demonstration (25 points)

Deliver a teaching demonstration on one topic of your choice based on your area of expertise, accompanied by appropriate teaching materials.

9.3 Interview (50 points)

Assess the candidate's suitability for the lecturer position based on their personal background, educational qualifications, work experience, and academic achievements.

All documents and materials for the research presentation and teaching demonstration must be prepared in English. Candidates are required to deliver the research presentation, teaching demonstration, and interview in English.

The Faculty of Economics will conduct the examination and interview on December 24, 2026, starting at 1:00 p.m. (the venue will be announced on the date of the eligible candidates' announcement).

Candidates must score at least 80 percent in the examination and interview, and obtain the highest score to be considered. If the selection results do not meet the specified criteria, the decision rests with the committee, and its judgment is final.

10. Announcement of the list of selected candidates for employment as university employees

The Faculty of Economics will announce the list of selected candidates on December 29, 2026, through the CMU HR e-Recruitment system at https://cmuhr.oou.cmu.ac.th/recruitment and https://www.econ.cmu.ac.th. Selected candidates are required to report in person at the Human Resources Unit, Faculty of Economics, and must present a medical certificate issued by a licensed physician. The medical certificate must be dated no more than 30 days prior to the reporting date. Failure to present a valid medical certificate shall be deemed as disqualification, and the candidate will not be employed Therefore, this announcement is made for the acknowledgment of all concerned.

Issued on November 17, 2026

(รองศาสตราจารย์ ดร.รสริน โอสถานันต์กุล)
คณบดีคณะเศรษฐศาสตร์